

The Czech Republic

Our country borders with:

- Germany in the west
- Austria in the south
- Poland in the north
- Slovakia in the east

Administrative regions

The coat of arms of the Czech Republic consists of four quadrants, each with a significant symbol representing the historical regions of the country. Here's a breakdown of the symbols:

First Quarter (Top Left):

- Symbol: A silver (white) double-tailed lion on a red background.
- Representation: This is the heraldic symbol of Bohemia, the largest and central part of the Czech Republic. The lion is crowned and has been a symbol of Bohemia since the 12th century.

Second Quarter (Top Right):

- Symbol: A red-and-silver (white) checkered eagle on a blue background.
- Representation: This is the heraldic symbol of Moravia, another historical region of the Czech Republic. The checkered eagle represents the Moravian Margraviate.

Third Quarter (Bottom Left):

- Symbol: A black eagle with a silver (white) crescent and cross on its chest on a gold (yellow) background.
- Representation: This symbolizes Silesia, the third historical region partially located within the Czech Republic. The black eagle is crowned and is a traditional emblem of Silesia.

Fourth Quarter (Bottom Right):

- Symbol: Identical to the first quarter, featuring a silver (white) double-tailed lion on a red background.
- Representation: This is again the symbol of Bohemia, emphasizing its importance in the history and unity of the Czech Republic.
